REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Every day in South Carolina, there are children who are being abused, abandoned, neglected, and becoming homeless at an alarming rate. The Children’s Attention Home Charter School (CAH Charter School) was established in 2004 to meet the educational needs of abused and neglected children who were placed at the Children’s Attention Home in Rock Hill, South Carolina for emergency shelter by the Department of Social Services (DSS). Many of these children are absent in traditional schools because of injury, illness, or lack of parental support to get them to school on a regular basis. Because of the instructional learning deficits, children who have been removed from their homes by DSS often arrive at the CAH Charter School significantly below grade level in all academic areas. The School only has two full time teachers and two part-time teachers. CAH Charter School is relatively much smaller than most schools and has to receive 60% of its funding from grants, private donors, and fundraising events.
